

EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS

THE RIGHT TO FREE MATERIALS DOES NOT APPLY TO:

- f* Documents in which students write, draw or cut out
- f* Materials for personal use, such as:
 - , school supplies (e.g. pencils, erasers, day planners)

STANDARDS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF GOVERNING BOARDS RELATING TO CERTAIN FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS THAT MAY BE REQUIRED

- f* The governing board is responsible for approving the financial contributions proposed by the principal (for services provided within the special school projects, school activities, materials and supervision at lunch time), some of which are developed in collaboration with teachers.
- f* The governing board must implement measures to facilitate access by each student to all services, activities or materials for which a contribution is required.
- f* Before approving a contribution, the governing board must take into account any other contributions it has approved or that are being proposed.
- f* The financial contributions required must not exceed the real expenses incurred by the school, and must not be subject to financing already provided for in the budget rules.
- f* Every financial contribution required for services provided within the scope of a special school project, for any school activities or for materials must be the subject of a clear and detailed invoice, explicitly indicating what the contribution is to be used for.
- f*